RAM

Dear Class of 1998,

We have spent the past four years learning, growing, and changing. Although we will all take different paths down the road of life, this yearbook will be a source of reflection on some of the greatest moments of our lives. Looking back evokes memories, those that shall remain imprinted on our hearts and minds forever. Memories such as the Prom, Octoberfest, Homecoming, and the Battle of the Rock, will be an everlasting part of us all.

As you flip through these pages, we hope that you will recall your great experiences here at Plymouth North High School. Hours have been devoted to the production of this yearbook. A yearbook that would never have reached completion without the undying support of our yearbook advisor, Mrs. Sampson. She has done the work of many, sacrificing her time for the finalization of our yearbook. Mrs. Sampson accepts nothing but the best, and has nothing but the best to give. For this and much more we whole-heartedly thank her.

As a result of our combined efforts, we have created this treasure of memories for you to unlock in the future.

Congratulations and Best Wishes,

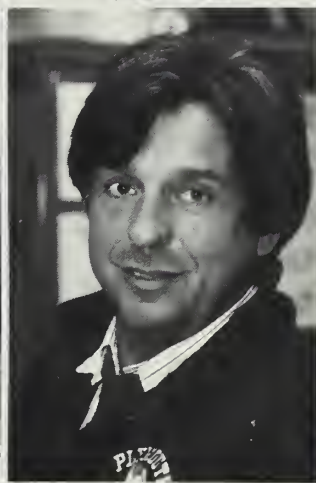

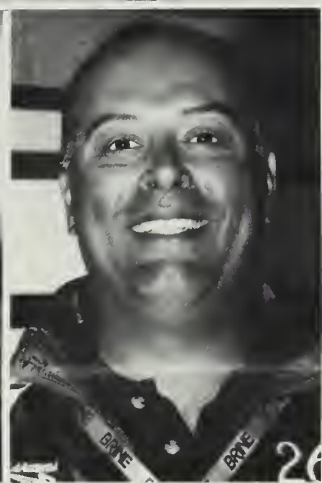

Andrea, Mark, Amanda

May you always meet life's challenges with the same happiness, enthusiasm, and confidence as you did then.

Love,

Ma & Dad

To Julie

We watched you grow through the years.
And even shed a few tears.
From nursery school to graduation,
There was a lot of admiration.
Ballet, Music and Drama you pursued.
And you always made it through.
Now it's time to leave the nest,
Good luck! We know you'll do your best.

Love

Mom, Dad and Eric

Dear Andy,

You have been a source of love and joy to us since the moment you were born. The beautiful memories you have created in the past 17 years will remain in our hearts and minds forever. You are an intelligent, caring, kind-hearted young lady, one that we are proud to call "our daughter." It has been a thrill and a gift for us to watch you learn and grow confident, independent and responsible.

May God always watch over you and light your way, and may life be all you reach for, all you dream of, and the best it can possibly be. Remember we love you with all our hearts, today, tomorrow, and always.

Love,
Mom, Dad
Krista, Erica & Corey

Colleen,
We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments. You found out, Hard work = Success.
Congratulations to our daughter, sister and friend. Thank you for being who you are.

As you take your journey to the next level, keep doing the things that brought you this far.

Remember, no matter where your journey takes you, our love and support will continue with you.

Love Always,
Mom, Dad,
Katie 2001, Dave 2008

PS: The candle should only burn at one end!

"AIM FOR THE STARS!"

THE MEMORIES YOU HAVE SHARED TOGETHER

WILL REMAIN THROUGHOUT THE YEARS

When I look back at the last 17 years, I smile a lot. I remember a scrawny little girl that loved dogs and hamsters, playing with makeup, squashing the cat, getting perms, and pulling teeth with a string. You were dubbed "Maddog" because everything you did, you did 100 miles per hour. I remember a lot of firsts: the first time you volunteered to do the dishes, your first dance with Conrad, your first karate ribbon, your first degree blackbelt, and your first serious boyfriend. You are the last little chick to fly the coop, but the first adventurous enough to want to fly so far! I am very proud of you Celeste, and all that you have become, and I know you'll be a great lawyer someday. How do I know this? You are "Spirit", and you can accomplish anything!

I love you!

Mom

*We remember your birth,
Seems like just the other day.
A precious gift from God,
we loved you right away.
Thinking we knew what love was,
we did not have a clue,
Until we saw a little bundle that turned out to be you !
As your parents, we thought we were all knowing and wise,
But we learned many lessons looking through your eyes.
The beauty of a snowflake,
and the sunrise at dawn,
took on a special meaning the day you were born.
The years have come and gone teaching us along the way.
It is hard to believe you have reached your graduation day.
May you follow all your dreams,
may they all become true.

Jen,
 Congratulations! I wish you a lot of success in the future. I will always be there when you need to talk. You will always be my best friend.

*I love you.
 Love, "D"*

Dear Jen,

Well, you finally made it, and I can't believe our school years together are over. I will miss seeing your face in the hallways at school or at my counter at "TCBY" on weekends. We've grown together from little girls playing Barbie and office to two young ladies on their way into the real world.
 Remember: two cute mousies at Paula Coffey's dance recital, getting hit in the head with a whiffle ball bat at the Vineyard, spending our summer days with Gram and when Wayne McKenzie was supposedly outside my sleep-over party. Remember: trying to keep me from getting lost on my first day of high school, gossiping during family parties, and need I say more;
 The Pool Pole Plunge. I will hold all these memories dear to me and so many more. We've been together since we were little, from battling over Barbies to battling each other in the Pool Pole Plunge. Soon we will be reminiscing over our college years. But now it's your turn to go ahead. There's no question that you will become a successful woman, but remember to always reach for your dreams and never to settle for anything less, it's amazing how far they can take you. And don't forget, even though you're going away to college, I'll always be here if you need me.

Love, your little cuz, Lauren

It was clear from the start that you were a determined individual. You have faced obstacles but marched on, always ready for a challenge. You have always been willing to help regardless of the task. You have given us strength during difficult times. Lessons learned and respect have been mutual. We know whatever you do you'll give it your best. Just be sure to have fun. We're very proud of the young man you have become!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Kristen

Kurt,
Remember when I was the tall one?
Kristen

Shyla,

When you were born 18 years ago, our lives changed forever. You have brought happiness to us every day of your life. Your determination to succeed in everything you do will take you farther in life than we could ever ask for.

Two years ago, the world stopped when we almost lost you. We sat by your side and we prayed and we cried. Well, our prayers were answered. God gave you back to us.

You have amazed us with your will and outlook on life. You have made us so very proud that words truly cannot express our feelings. We want to thank you for growing into the beautiful, young woman you have become.

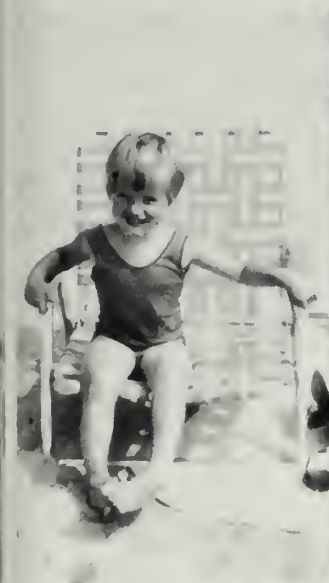

We love you, Mom and Dad

Sarah,

*You've been a joy your entire life.
Congratulations on a job well done.
We're very proud of you.*

*Love,

To: Jimmy,

Watching you grow has been a joyous experience! Whether it be playing hockey in Canada, baseball in Cooperstown, skiing in Lake Placid or golf at the country club; look at all you've accomplished already. We can't wait to see what you do next.

P.S. What a life.

Matthew,

My heart,
My soul,
My being.
My life began with yours on June 10, 1980,
at 12:07 a.m.
I learned to feel, to want, to need, to hurt, to wish,
to fear, and,
above all else,
to truly LOVE.

I thank myself everyday for being brave enough to see if I could, and I thank GOD everyday for giving you to me to prove that I would. Way to go Babe. I am, always have been, and always will be very PROUD of you.
Remember to KEEP THE FAITH ! I love you, Mom

Dear Tim,

We are very proud of the person you have become. We know that if you put your mind to it, you will be great at whatever you choose to do.
Dad and I know this year was very tough but you made the right choice.

Remember that everything happens for a reason.
Always try to be a leader of good things.

We love you very much.

Life holds no promises as to what will come your way.
You must search for your own ideals and work towards reaching them.
Life makes no guarantees
as to what you'll have.
It just gives you time to make choices and to take chances, and to discover whatever secrets might come your way.
No one knows the mysteries of life or its ultimate meaning, but for those who are willing to believe in their dreams and in themselves,
life is a precious gift
in which anything is possible.
Take the opportunities you are given and utilize the abilities you have.
Fill your life with special moments and unforgettable times.

Dear Lisa,

You are truly a blessing from above. Your laughter, charm and thoughtfulness brings to me a special joy. Your strength, integrity and compassion make you the individual that I am proud to call my daughter. We have shared many long talks over the years which has made our relationship one of a kind and brought us closer than I ever imagined!

You've worked very hard and have achieved much. May you accomplish everything you strive for and may the Lord protect and guide you in your journey ahead.

Remember, I love you and will always be there for you.

To "My" daughter, Lisa...

You have truly turned out to be one of a kind... Although many miles have separated us over the years, our spirits and hearts have been bonded together at "all" times. I am proud of the way you have grown with grace and dignity. Most of all, I admire your independence and intellect... Your beauty and wisdom will take you on many adventures as you go forward in life... I will think of you and love you always.... Dad.....

Dear Megan,

This year has come much too quickly. Along the way you've grown into a wonderful young person. As you prepare for the next step in your search for independence, I wish for you the freedom to choose wisely, the courage to be your own person, the joy in every day living, and the serenity of inner peace. May you come to realize the importance of family and know that we are always here for you. Best of luck!

WILLIAM,

Over the years, your mom and I have watched you grow from an infant to a child to a young man, and now you are on the verge of adulthood. During that time, we have tried to teach you many lessons such as sharing, fairness, cooperation, ethical behavior and all of the rest. Now, you are so close to the time when you will be sharing those lessons and ideals with another generation. It doesn't seem possible --or fair that the time should have passed so quickly. Now that you are almost grown and on your own, there is only one thing that I would like to say at this time. CLEAN UP YOUR ROOM!! And - Mom and I love you very much.

Jillian,

Being you brother has not always been easy. I have sat thru more dance lessons, recitals, band concerts, football games, parades, competitions and Girl Scout events than anyone individual should have had to endure. Yet, it hasn't all been bad. Sometimes it has even been fun. Remember our Play Doh marathons in Maine, sledding with the Lynx, skiing, kayaking, mountain bikes and Mom's hikes from 7*17*1. Sometimes you even let me hang out with your friends.

As badly as I want to pack up your "Disney Shrine" and have my own hobby room, truth is I am going to miss having you around.

Thank you for showing me how to follow my dreams. Remember Princess, don't forget your brother, the "P".

Love,
Adam

Jillian,

On April 4, 1980, at 10:43 A.M., we were given a precious gift. One look onto those bright blue eyes told us our lives would never be the same. You were ready for the world... was it ready for you? Armed with "Bun" and "Blankie", you set out.

Over the past 18 years, seeing the world thru your eyes has been nothing short of an incredible journey. We learned very quickly how determined, capable and confident you were. When you set a goal, you would do all in your power to achieve it, no challenge too great, no road too long, no mountain too high. From "Somewhere Over The Rainbow", your first attempt at choreography with Allie B., to dancing on a Broadway stage, playing the flute in Annapolis, singing in Williamsburg, Girl Scout Silver and Gold Awards, a Sunday River Skier Development nametag with your name on it, all exist in your life because you made them happen.

I'll miss our late night talks. Dad will miss his "rides" in "Clifford". As you embark on the next leg of your "journey", we hope you will include us in some of it's adventures.

As we let you go, all at once our hearts are full of a bit of sadness, tremendous joy, much love and great pride. You have been the kind of Daughter and Granddaughter most families can only dream of having; we have been blessed to have you as our own.

So Princess, reach for the stars and "Thank You" for letting us "Share the Magic."

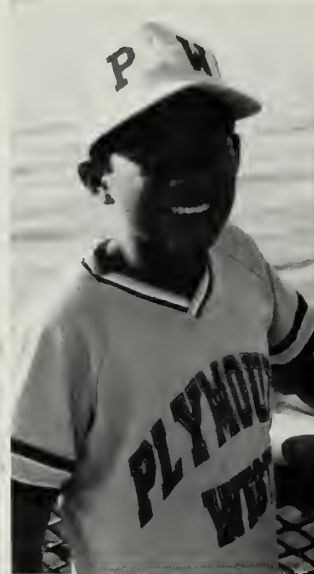

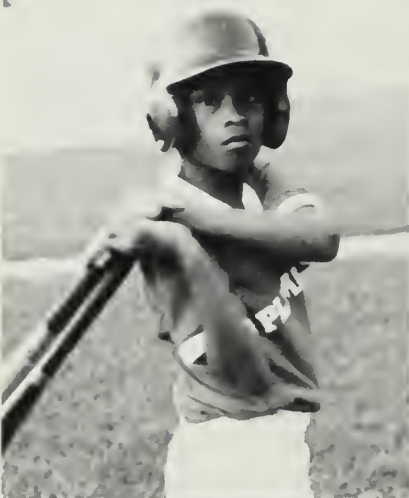

Love,
Mom, Dad, Bam and "Gramper"

We have spent the past 18 years "rigging" your "Ship", Now is the time to let "It" sail. May your journeys be full of adventure, health, the love of your family and good friends. May the seas be smooth, the skies clear and bright and full of stars at night. May the winds be gentle, yet forever in your sails. Most of all, never forget . . . if the waters get choppy and storm clouds darken your skies, you always have a safe harbor to return to. Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Adam,
 We are so proud to be your parents. You

*Sometimes I thought we would never get this far... Yet now
I look and here we are The obstacles you have risen above were made possible by the gift of love
The future we have yet to see
In your heart you hold the key
Each day is a new stepping stone
Remember, you will never be alone*

You have earned your wings

*Love you
All my heart
All my world
& too much Mum*

*When I think of you a lot comes to mind
The words to speak I cannot find*

*With everything that we've been through
And all the things we have yet to do*

*You were there for me
In the times I could not see*

*I want you to know I'll be there for you
For all hard times I will get you through*

Anything else words cannot say Except...I Love You more everyday.

*Love always and forever,
Jessica*

*You are my sister, you are my heart
You love me in a special way
And I feel the same way about you
You are my sister and I love you.*

Time has a way of quickly passing;
Memories of a childhood everlasting.

As a family we've sailed through turbulence and calm
Our arms around you protecting from harm.

Now look to the future, my precious child.
But only walk, don't run.

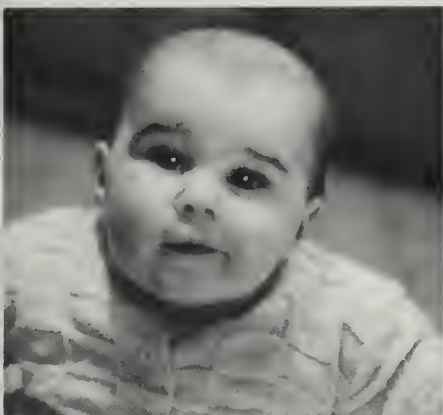

As parents we see your future bright.
Bright as the morning sun.

What you pursue, it matters not;
You are bound for certain success.

So hold your head high and reach for the stars;
And so easily will come all the rest.

Lauren, we all love you so much and
Are so very, very proud of you.
Now show the world what you've got!
Congratulations!

*It's hard to believe it is time for you to move on to the next chapter of your life.
You have brought us so much happiness and joy being just who you are.
A daughter, a sister, an athlete, a leader, a musician and a friend.
We know that whatever you set your mind to do, you will accomplish!
We love you with all our hearts!!!*

Mom & Dad

It has been a pleasure watching you grow up from the cute, little girl whose favorite story was Big Black Walking Pocket and whose best friend was the big, fat hen, into the wonderful, caring, loving, beautiful young woman you have become. I am so very proud of you.

As you go off into the big world, remember I will always be here for you and that you will always have a special place in my heart.
Keep reaching for the stars.

I love You, Auntie Lu
P.S. See you on Broadway !!

Kate: There is not enough space to tell you everything that you Dad and I feel for you. You are everything we could want and more. You are a great daughter, a caring, sensitive, loyal friend and sister - just a joy for all to be around. We could not ask for more. We are so proud of your accomplishments and know you will give us plenty more to be proud of in the future. As you leave the nest and go off to college, remember we are very proud of you.

Love,

become and I know in my heart there are great things in store for you. Please know wherever your life takes you, I will always be there for you, 'My Sweet Melissa.'

Love, Mom

Justin,

You have been a joy since the day you came into my life. You are a remarkable young man and have many gifts to share with the world. I know you will succeed at whatever you do because of your attitude....

"Your attitude will have the biggest impact on your life. Attitude is more important than facts. It is more important than the past, than education, than money than circumstances, than failures, than successes, than what other people think or say or do. It is more important than appearance, giftedness or skill. It will make or break you. The remarkable thing is we have a choice every day regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day. We cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way. We cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our attitude. I hope you will remember, throughout your life, that life is 10% what happens to you and 90% how you react to it."

You deserve the "best of everything..." and I'll always be there for you.

Love,

Auntie Joanie

*A son is someone special in so many different ways.
You have a way of bringing special moments to our days
A son that came upon us by such a surprise, little did we know how much you would enrich our lives.
From your blond streaked hair, riding your Big-Wheels, you have been the light of our lives over the years.
A son brings so much happiness, that comes from deep inside
You have been a wonderful brother all through the years.
I'm sure Vanessa may not always agree, watching out for her well-being, has always been the reason.
The kindness, compassion and support you have shown through all of our very difficult times, Has created an exceptional mature individual beyond your years.
We are so very proud of all of your accomplishments,
We are sure you will be successful in all that you choose to do.
And as you grow into a man,
you fill our hearts with pride
With every year that passes you are dearer than before.
Through every stage, every age
We love you even more.*

*I have given much thought to what I wanted to say
At first I planned something funny.
Then I thought of saying something that would inspire to Your lofty goals.
But since I'm not a good comic and your goals are so high already, I doubt anything I say could raise them.
I figured I'd just tell you how I feel about having you as My Son.
If I ever had the chance to go back in time and start High School all over again, I'd do everything I could to be the kind of young man you have become. There are several very proud people looking over you.*

Oh Caity, the joyous moments that you have given us,
 Each one was filled with laughter and happiness, but never a fuss.
 We watched you crawl and then walk,
 We listened as you spoke your first words and began to talk.
 And never shall we ever forget Cait,
 The day that you took to the ice and started to skate.
 Now you must go out and begin a new phase in your life,
 May it be filled with success and happiness and never any strife.
 Although some days will be as rough as a stormy sea,
 Remember one thing Cait, we are always a family.
 All our love, Mom and Dad

ONE GOAL

One Goal, What does it mean?
Many things in life are not what they seem.
One Goal to be the best that can be
Is THE only best that YOU can see.

One Goal in a parent's eye
Differs when there's a time to cry.
The hopes and aspirations of Our hearts burst wide,
When we see that goal is by your side.

And if that one goal comes on the field,
For, or against, you can only yield
To have done the best that you can do
One goal - to yourself be true!

One goal can make or break a season,
A record, or a heart.

One goal We need to seek for us,
Is that goals do not keep us apart.

Craig

From the day of your birth, you have always been a great source of pride and joy. You have grown from being known as a "sweet little boy" to the present "fine young man." You are thoughtful, caring, intelligent, independent, and very determined. All of these fine qualities will serve you well in your future endeavors.

People say you can judge a person by their eyes. The unique coloring of your eyes speak of your individualism but the kindness in your eyes speaks of your heart and soul.

I cried the day of your birth when I first saw you. I cried on the first day of school as I put you on the bus. I'm crying now. Please know that these are tears of joy, pride and most of all love and just a touch of sadness as you continue on your journey through life.

Love, Mom

Craig

I am not sure where to begin. A father can only be very pleased and immensely proud when a son is born to him and to that point I was blessed when you arrived. Watching you grow, working in the garden, fishing, skiing, "you" being the captain of "my" boat, driving the Explorer, robotics; have all been great sources of pure enjoyment and pride to me. You being named the recipient of the Dr. Root Award at the Joslin Camp as well as how you have handled other difficult issues in your life, only further convinced me that you possess the necessary mettle to meet your personal goals and to enjoy life while doing so. And now you are going off to WPI. A father could not be prouder of his son.

As Ziggy said, "The path of least resistance is the road to failure." You never followed that path of least resistance and because of that you are now on the road to success. Never change, be true to thine own self because you are "Craig" and nothing could be better than that.

Love, Dad

Craig

As your younger sister, it has not always been easy to be in your shadow. You are a hard act to follow and you have set high standards for me to achieve. While we are very different, we are very much alike, in that we are very proud of our individual accomplishments and we strive to do our best in our own individual ways. I wish you much success in college and I am proud to have people know me as "Craig's sister". (Can I have your room, if not how about the Explorer?)

Love, Lee-Ann '00

Dear Melonie,

Where did the years go? It seems like yesterday you were a tiny bundle of joy in our arms. Then, you were a little girl holding our hands tight. Now, you are a beautiful, young woman with a whole world waiting for you. Having you for a daughter has been one of life's greatest gifts, for all that you have been, for all you are, and for all you have yet to be. You have brought us so much happiness, pride, and joy. You are loved so much. You will always be my treasure and Daddy's Little Girl. You make our hearts smile. We wish you the very best. May all your dreams come true.

HUGS --

Goober, Bull Dog, Princess liver, Paris, Christmas dinners,
Soccer, mood swings of the young and old,
Hugs.

The old learning from the young,
Listening rather than speaking All would mean nothing without
...Hugs

Without hugs
All else pales
Safe harbor, forever

Love Always,
Daddy

"Looking back on the memory of The Dance we shared 'neath the stars above
For a moment all the world was right...
I could have missed the pain, but I'd of had to miss the dance"

Life is merely survived when you're standing outside the fire....

Lindsey,

I know the roots you've grown are deep
May the wings we've given you withstand the flight
I know you'll be going places!!

Thanks for the ride and all the memories..

The JOY and PRIDE are immeasurable

Marcia,
 Congratulations on making it to graduation.
 We are all very proud of you. Watching you grow has been interesting and, at times, challenging. You have grown into an intelligent, beautiful, young lady. Thinking back to when you were born, I remember having great hopes for you to become someone special who had great impact on your generation. I can see the potential that you have and believe that you are not only special to your family, but I know your friends also feel this way. I believe you will have great impact on your generation as well as others. We wish you the best for a successful future and know we will be behind you every step of the way.
 Love Always, Mom, David and the family

*Edelweiss, edelweiss,
Ev'ry morning you greet me.
Small and white,
Clean and bright,
You look happy to meet me.*

*Blossom of snow,
May you bloom and grow,
Bloom and grow forever,
Edelweiss, edelweiss,
Bless my homeland forever.*

Dear Class of 1998,

My, how four years pass so quickly, especially when you are having fun. I will remember this class as being special to one another and enjoying each other's company. Your Junior Prom was one of the largest ever. My very best wishes to each and every one of you. May you continue to be lifelong learners and may you enjoy a lifetime of happiness.

Sincerely,

Frank Rose
Principal

THE PSHS CLASS OF 1998

The Class of 1998 -

*- Really special and caring class officers
- Outstanding and committed Student Council members*

- A class with great spirit and huge participation Sharing with Mr. Cabral in your activities for the past four years has been a special experience. I have really had fun. Best wishes always.

Mr. Gadbois

Dear Class of 1998,

You were the best group I have ever had the privilege of advising.

Great Leaders! Great People! Thanks. Remember always: Keep your dreams alive. As I said during your freshman year;

*Class of '98 is great!
Good Luck, Mr. Cabral*

*...take time to be friendly , it is the road to happiness.
...take time to dream ,
it is hitching your wagon to a star.
...take time to love and be loved ,
it is the privilege of the gods.
...take time to look around ,
it is too short a day to be selfish.
...take time to laugh ,
it is the music of the soul.*

*"We might have took the long way but We knew we'd get there someday
They said out there we'd never make it, but just look at us now...
I'm so glad we made it Look how far we've come!"*

Dear Class of 1998,

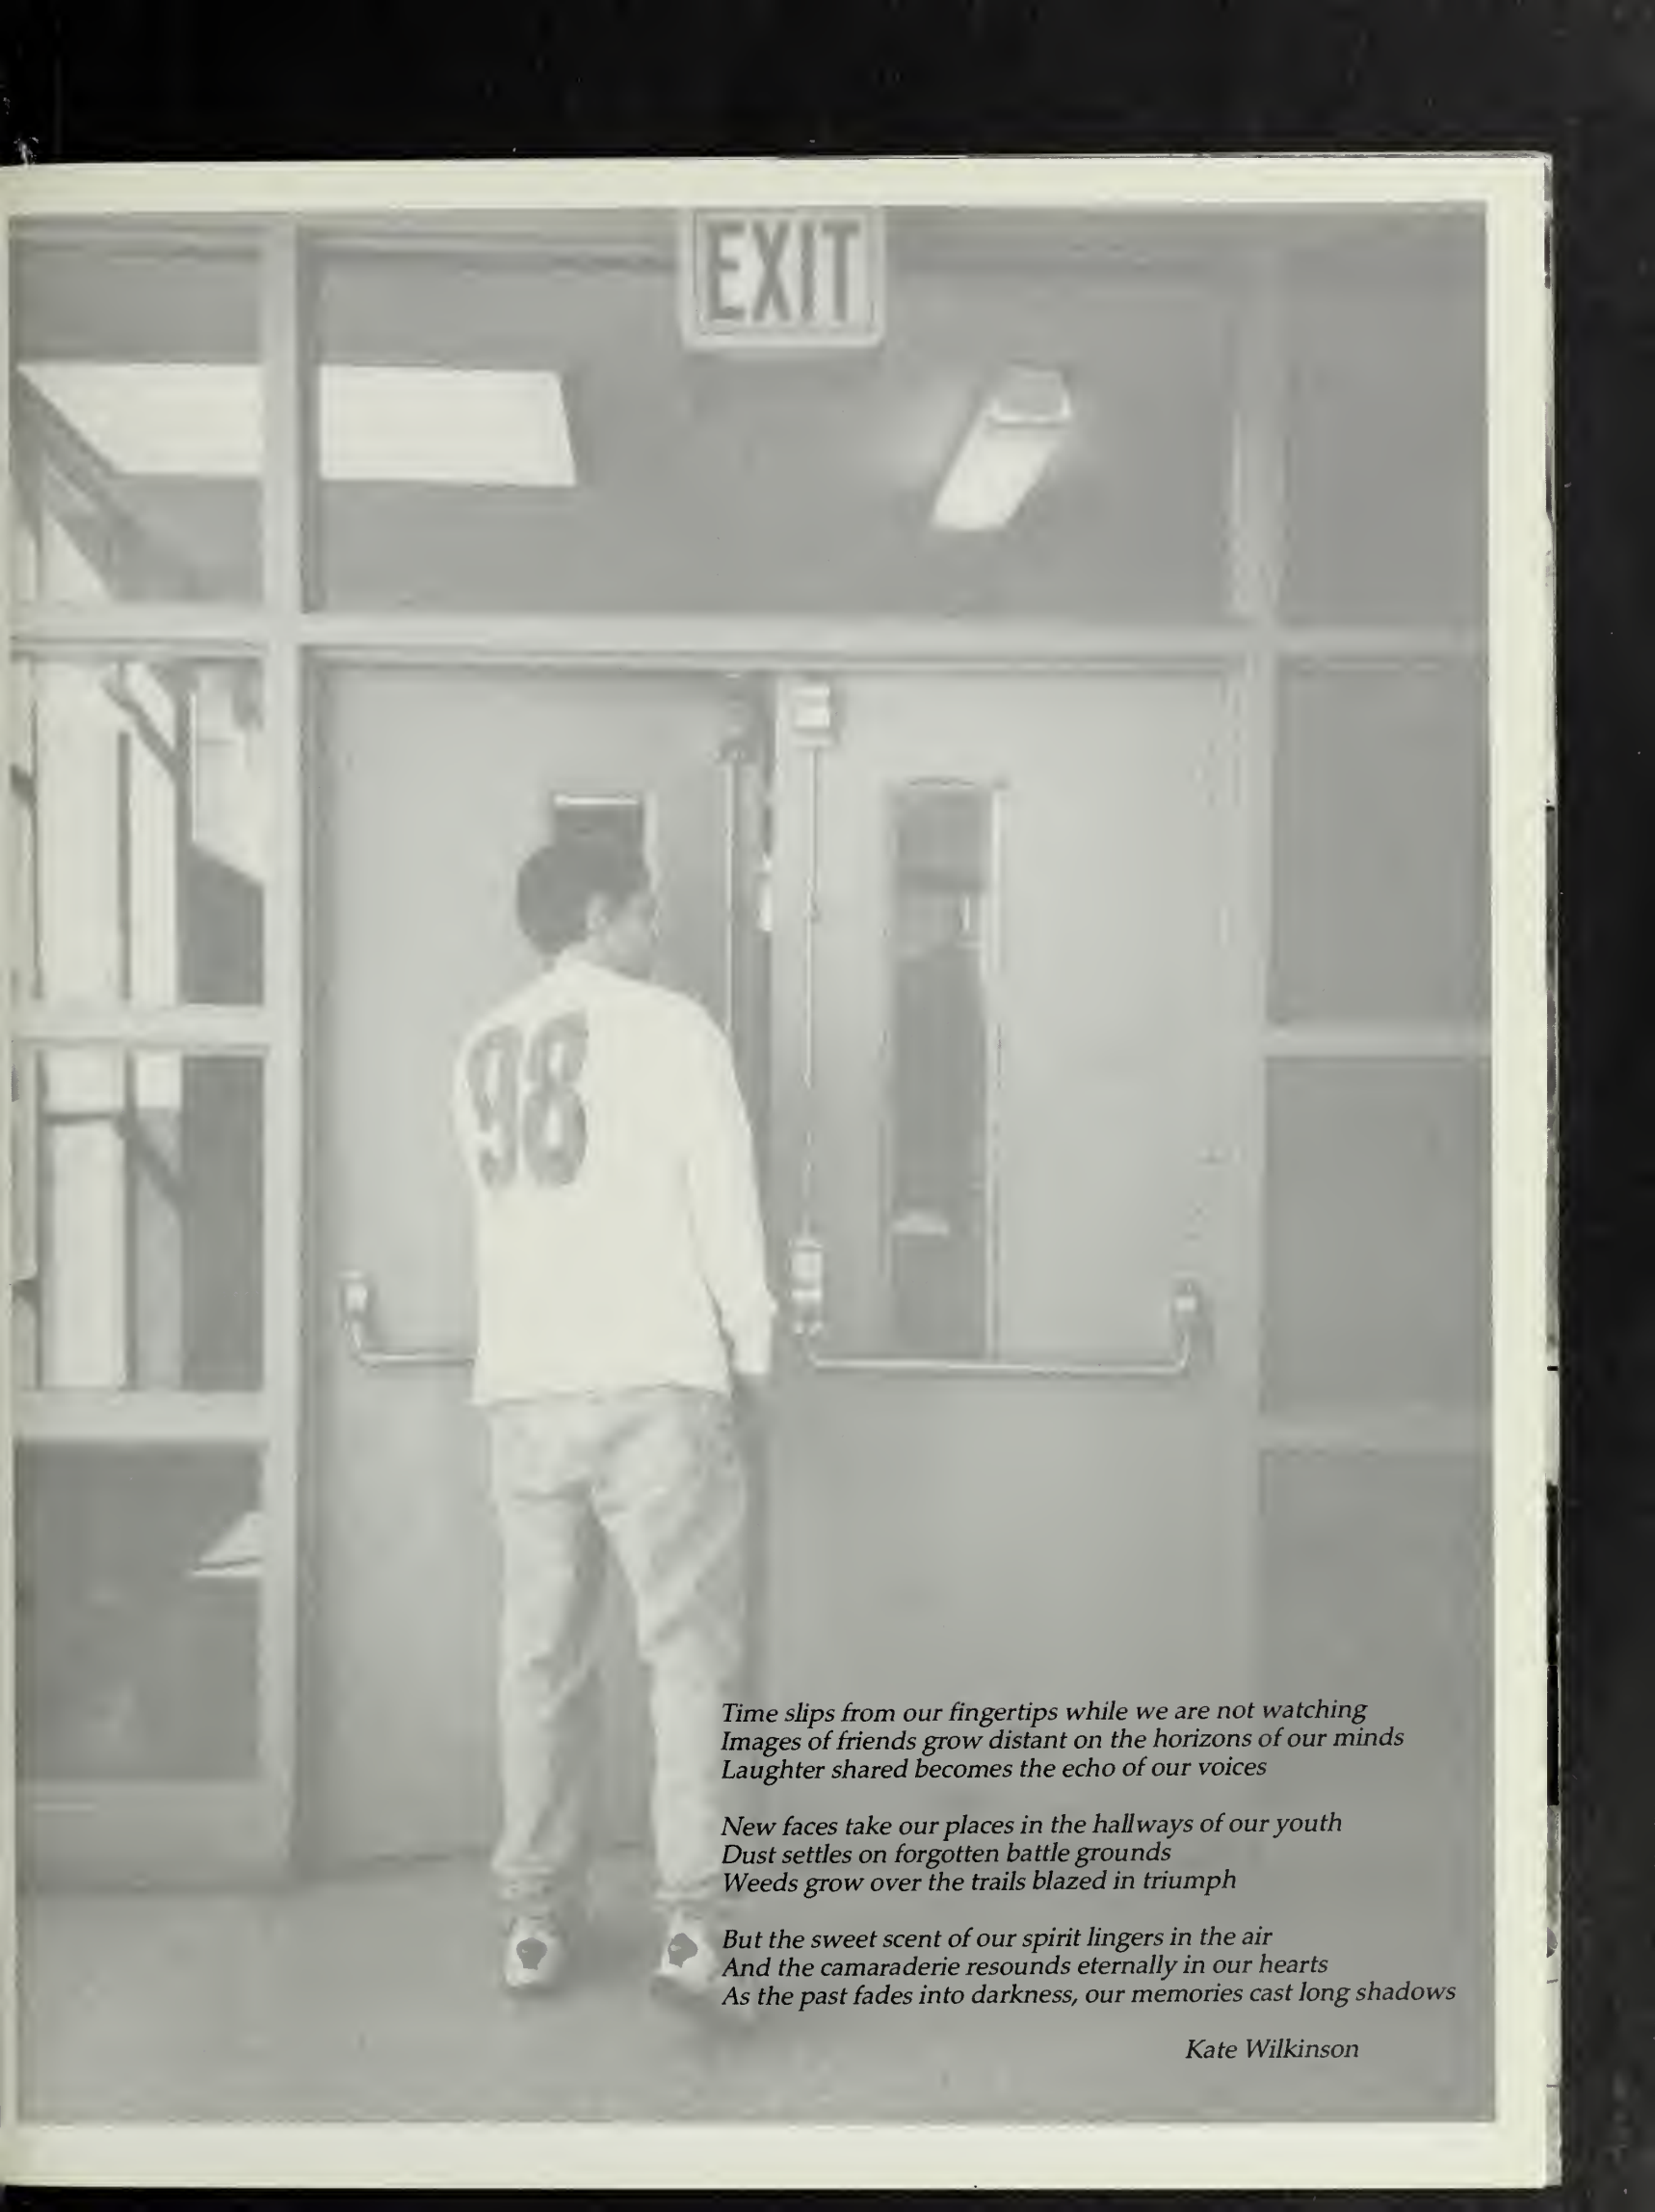

As this year comes to a close, we would like to congratulate you on your accomplishments during your four years here at Plymouth North High School. We would also like to wish you prosperity and success in the future.

As a class, we've shared both laughter and tears. We have grown together in unity. Gathered here are the many memories and experiences which have served to draw us together through the years. This book is a representation of these experiences, captured forever for our reflection and enjoyment. Hard work, creativity, and time have been invested in the production of this yearbook to capture our many memories.

We would like to give a very special thanks to Mrs. Christine Sampson. She has invested both her time and energy aiding us in the process of creating this tribute to our past. We would also like to extend a special thanks to Mrs. Woods, Nancy Green, and Norvill Gamet, for their behind the scenes work.

*Good luck to all and best wishes for the future, Jessica, Andrea, Nancy, Mark, Justin, Lauren, Lindsey,

EXIT

*Time slips from our fingertips while we are not watching Images of friends grow distant on the horizons of our minds
Laughter shared becomes the echo of our voices*

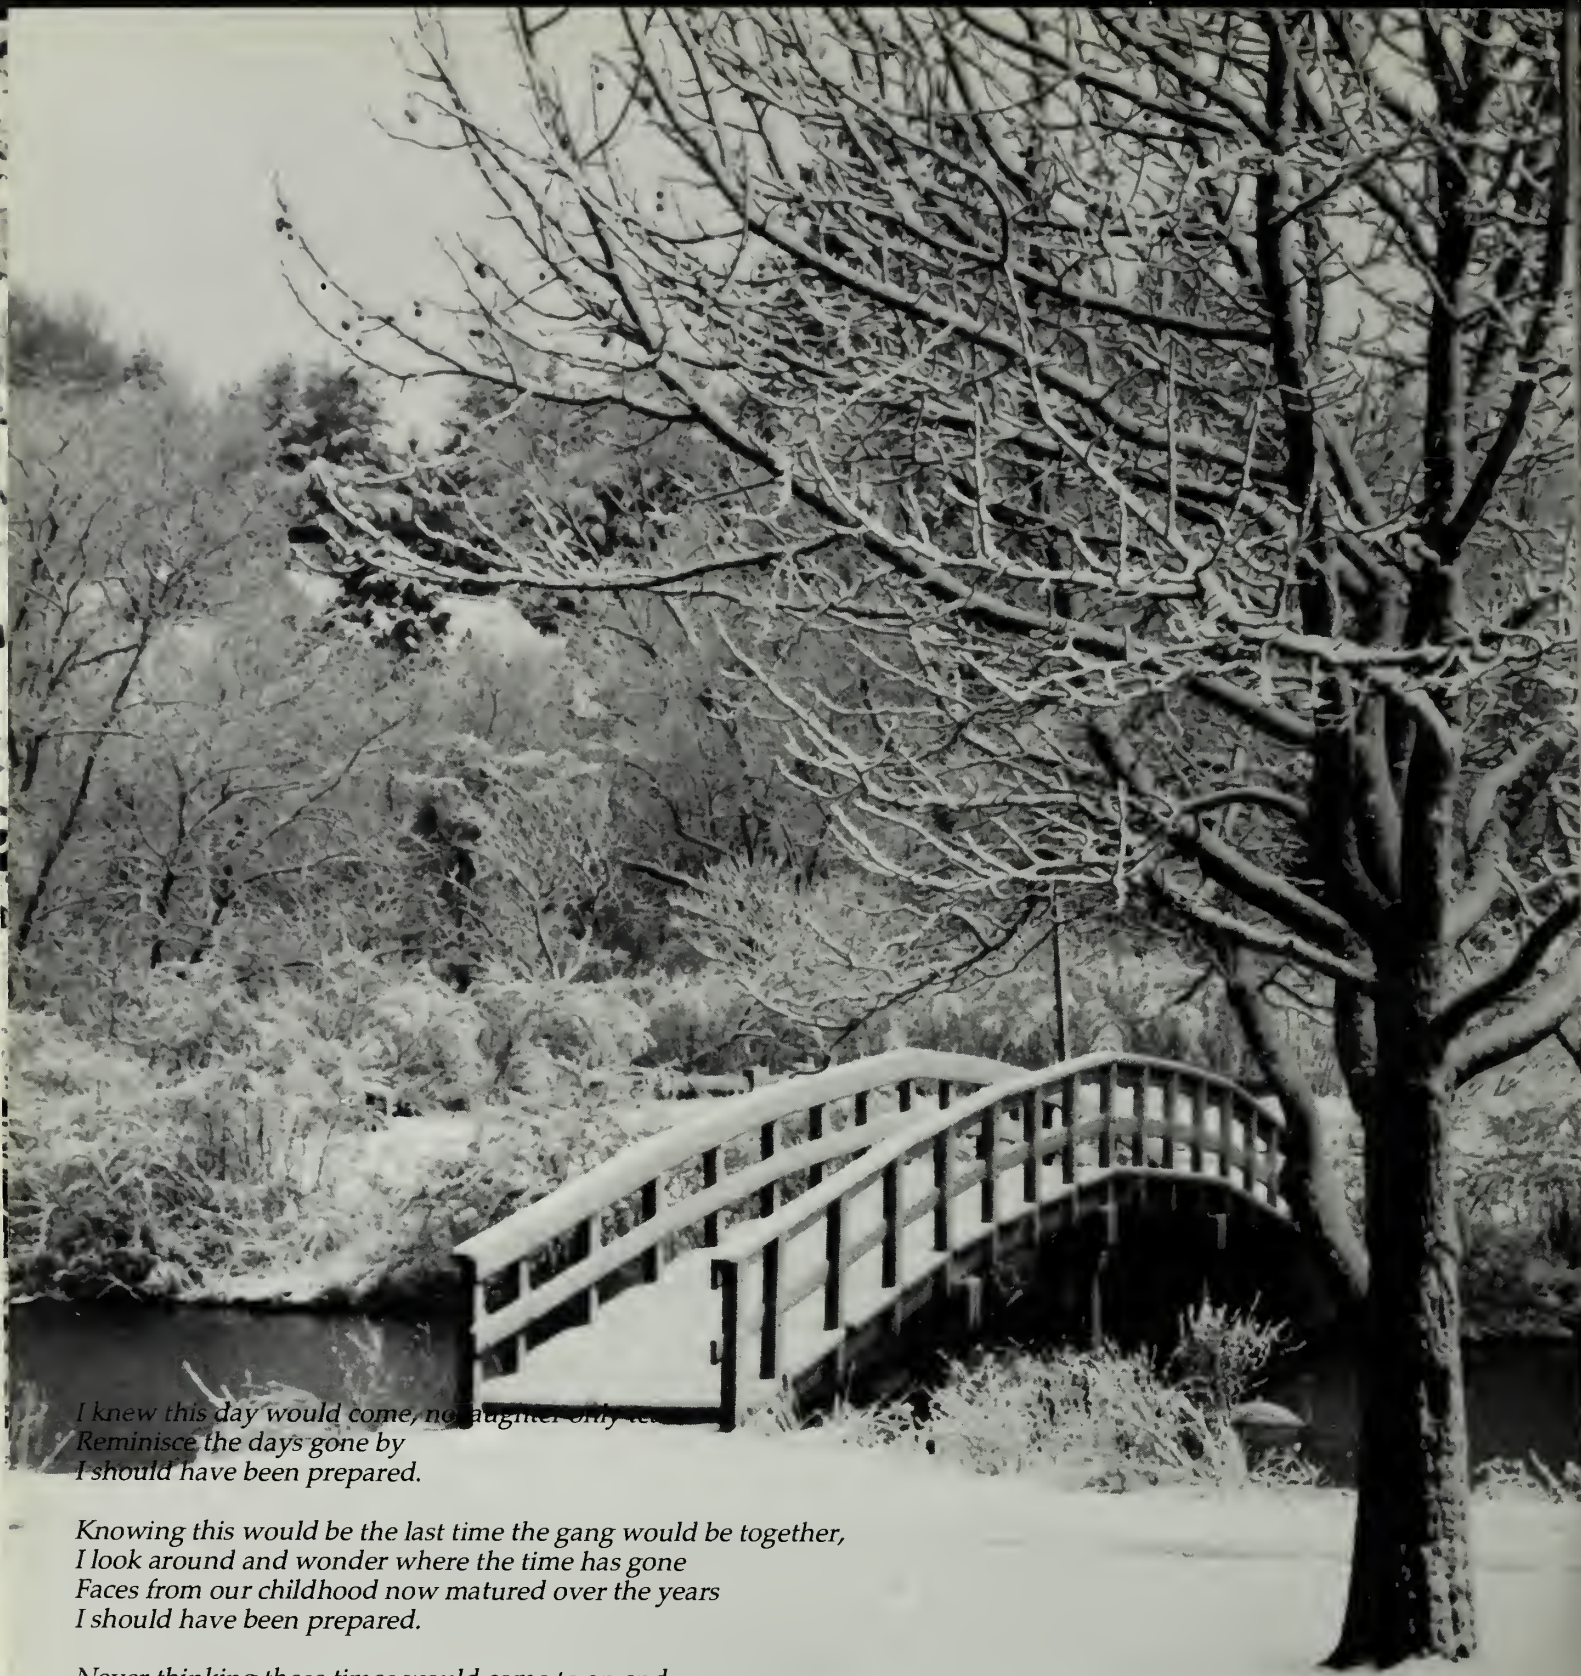

*New faces take our places in the hallways of our youth Dust settles on forgotten battle grounds
Weeds grow over the trails blazed in triumph*

*But the sweet scent of our spirit lingers in the air
And the camaraderie resounds eternally in our hearts
As the past fades into darkness, our memories cast long shadows*

Kate Wilkinson

*I knew this day would come, no laughter only tears Reminisce the days gone by
I should have been prepared.*

*Knowing this would be the last time the gang would be together,
I look around and wonder where the time has gone
Faces from our childhood now matured over the years
I should have been prepared.*

*Never thinking these times would come to an end
Turning each page and looking at all the familiar faces and places
Thinking of all the wonderful memories a tear trickles down my face
I should have been prepared.*

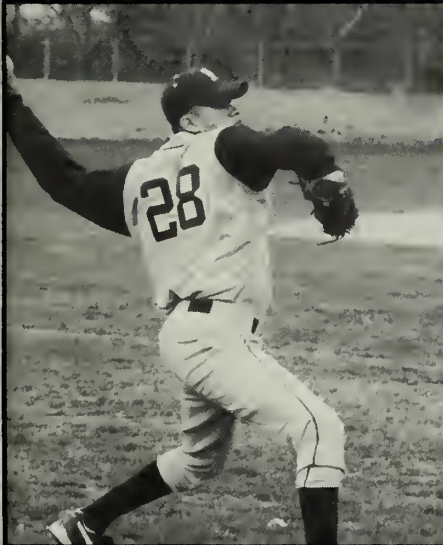

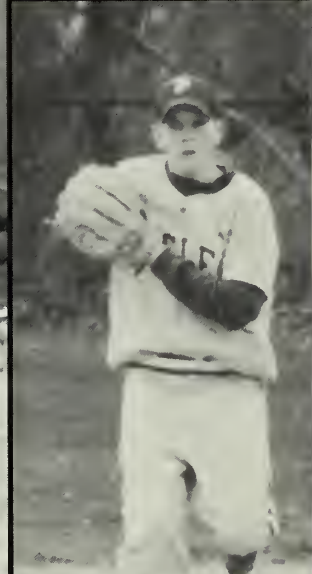

*Our tearful goodbyes exchanged
Hugs and kisses to all not wanting to let go
Our time as adolescents has passed
Memories of four years of our lives tucked neatly between the pages
Who knew it would go by so fast
I should have been prepared.*
